

Charles F. Monzeglio was born on September 28, 1942 to Charles and Arcolina (Preli) Monzeglio in Hartford, Connecticut.

Charles grew up in Glastonbury, Connecticut and served his country in the U.S. Air Force and the Connecticut Air National Guard, 103rd Fighter Squadron.

Chuck has three children and six grandchildren.

He is president and CEO of CFM Construction Corporation, General Contractors and Construction Managers which has completed a broad scope of projects, small and large throughout Connecticut and other states.

Charles' interests extend beyond the field of construction. He has been the chairman of a bank, owner and developer of commercial real estate, home health care, and is a long-time sponsor of the arts in the United States and Italy. For many years he has supported the Sergio Franchi Music Scholarship Foundation ... incidentally Sergio Franchi was born in Cremona. In addition, Chuck was vice president of development for The Adirondack Park Institute, a past president and member of the Home Builders Association of Hartford County, a life membership on the board of directors of the National Home Builders Association, member of the Construction Institute of the University of Hartford, the Rotary Club of Glastonbury, a Paul Harris Fellow of the Rotary Club International... which is the highest award given to any member for contributions to Rotary International functions and programs, a lifetime member of the Societa Val Trebbia E Val Nure, Inc. in New York City, the Elks Club, Matson Hill Club of Glastonbury along with the Hartford Club, and Officers Club of Hartford.

In 2009 he received the Columbia Lodge 25 Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of South Glastonbury Community Service Award. The award stated QUOTE... his services to the community of Glastonbury, and extending well beyond the border of this country have benefited countless people over a period of many years. He is a person we should all look up to for an inspiration on how to help others. All of which he accomplished in his quiet manner without any suggestion of recognition. UNQUOTE.

Chuck learned early and has practiced continually the axiom "it is not what you say that counts but what you do".

Chuck is a strong supporter of his heritage. His presence is also felt in Italy having orchestrated and help fund the renovation of the church and its artwork in the village of Rompeggio, Province of Ferriere, Piacenza where his grandmother and grandfather were baptized and married.

He has also been a strong supporter of education and the Societa's scholarship fund. In the past he would bring 1 or 2 bus loads of people to the scholarship dance. An average of 50-80 people to each function. While times have changed, he continues to participate and raise funds by collecting advertising for the journal.

In summary...Chuck has a motto that he lives by every day... "Never forget where you came from. And, never forget your heritage".
